IMMIGRATION TO CANADA

The Ultimate Guide on Moving to Canada

BY CANADACIS

A seagull is shown in flight, its wings spread wide, against a clear blue sky. Below the bird, a body of water is visible, featuring a waterfall on the right side. The overall scene is serene and natural.

INTRODUCTION:

MOVING TO CANADA

Immigrating to Canada comes with plenty of benefits for immigrants! Some of these benefits include a series of well-being programs for children and adults, substantial pension plans, high-quality child care benefits, a top-notch education system, and excellent healthcare benefits. About 300,000 immigrants move each year for these benefits, and you could be one of them too!

WHY SHOULD YOU IMMIGRATE TO CANADA?

HIGH QUALITY OF LIFE

Canada is a popular choice for immigrants due to the country's high standard of living. Not only does the country maintain the perfect balance between work and pleasure, but it also provides a safe environment in which residents can enjoy both.

EXCEPTIONAL CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Canada offers work opportunities for a wide range of professions, including medical, engineering, management, construction, and others. Immigrants choose to work in Canada due to the growing economy which creates a greater demand and a variety of possibilities for foreign skilled workers.

GREAT FOR FAMILIES

Families with children or young couples who wish to start a family will appreciate the family-friendly attractions found in any province within the country. Canada is also known for its low crime-rates, creating a safe environment for you and your family.

EXCELLENT EDUCATION SYSTEM

Canada is now the most popular destination for many foreign students. Students choose Canada as an option to further their studies because the country's education system is considered to be one of the finest in the world. Canada has regularly been among the world's top five nations with the best higher education systems.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR IMMIGRATION?

Generally, anyone may be eligible for immigration. Canada's immigration system has dozens of programs and streams – each with their own specific requirements. The requirements are based on numerous criteria such as: age, work experience, language proficiency, education level, and more. In order to know if YOU are eligible, you would need to have an immigration professional examine your individual situation and provide answers which are specific to you.

An immigration expert will also be able to help you find the most suitable immigration pathway based on their assessment of your situation.

Disclaimer: Foreigners with criminal records or severe medical conditions are not eligible for immigration.

The 3 basic requirements you will need to submit during your assessment include:

PASSPORT/ID CARD

ACADEMIC CERTIFICATE

EXPRESS ENTRY SYSTEM

CANADACIS

EXPRESS ENTRY SYSTEM

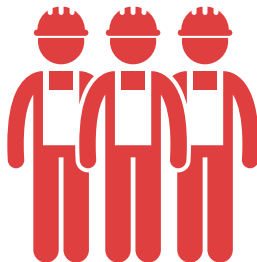

Canada's Express Entry System was created to cater for Canada's need for Federal skilled workers and professionals. A growing economy, abundant natural resources and a dwindling workforce resulted in a strong demand for skilled professionals from abroad.

In order to arrange for a faster and more efficient immigration process, Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada – IRCC (previously known as Citizenship and Immigration Canada or CIC) created an online system known as Express Entry.

Its streams are connected to several federal economic immigration programs:

- Federal Skilled Worker Class
- Federal Skilled Trades Class
- Canadian Experience Class
- Provincial Nominee Programs

PROVINCIAL NOMINEE PROGRAM

CANADACIS

PROVINCIAL NOMINEE PROGRAM

Those who wish to apply under Provincial Nominee Programs must have the skills, education and work experience to contribute to the economy of that province or territory and must want to live there. Provincial Nomination is also an important fast-track option available for Canadian Permanent Residency.

Each province and territory has its own “streams” (immigration programs designed for different groups of candidates) and criteria for their PNP. For example: in a program stream, provinces and territories may target students, business people, skilled workers or semi-skilled workers. In some Provinces, applicants with family members, close relatives or family friends in that particular province are given additional advantage. Some Provincial Nomination Programs may be connected to the Express Entry system.

Popular Provincial Programs in Canada are:

- British Columbia PNP
- Manitoba PNP
- Alberta PNP
